I Call Your Name***

Music and lyrics by Bill McGarvey C'87

I was given eyes to see
Eyes to see, eyes to see
I was given eyes to see
But I can't see you
I can still recall your face
Every line I can retrace
A picture in your place just won't do
I call your name
I call your name
You were mine before you were made
If you search for a sign

You'll find it on the wind
I call your name

I was given ears to hear
Ears to hear, loud and clear
I was given ears to hear
But I can't hear you
Your voice still echoes in my ear
It fools me and I think you're here
I say prayer I don't stop hearing you
I call your name
I call your name
You know my voice
It's never changed
Let the rain beat down and the retreat sound
I'll call you all the same
I call your name
I call your name
Like a prayer no one can explain
If you search for a sign
You'll find it on the wind
I call your name

I was given hands to touch
Strong enough to hold you up
I was given hands to touch but I can't touch you
I feel your presence every time
My senses leave me deaf and blind
My tongue is dumb and won't know what to do
I call your name
I call your name
When there's nothing else that remains
Let the thunder sound
Let the walls fall down
You'll find I'm still the same
I call your name

I call your name
You were mine before you were made

If you look for a sign
You'll find it in a whisper
I call your name
